

Germantown Academy Competitive Swim Clinics

Sunday—October 19, 2008

Sunday—January 25, 2009

Saturday—May 30, 2009

Sunday—June 14, 2009

Each Clinic is from Noon—3 p.m.

Germantown Academy Competitive Swim Clinics are open to swimmers of all ages. Each clinic will focus on proper stroke techniques of the four competitive strokes, starts and turns as well as an overview of dryland training. 1992 Olympic Swim Coach, Richard Shoulberg will be conducting each clinic at Germantown Academy's 25-yard facility. Swimmers and parents will have the opportunity to ask questions of Mr. Shoulberg and his staff. Parents are allowed to view the clinics from the pool balcony and videotaping is permitted and encouraged by parents and coaches.

Mr. Shoulberg is the Head Coach and Aquatics Director at Germantown Academy as well as Germantown Academy Aquatic Club (formerly Team Foxcatcher). He has represented the United States in international competitions including the World and Pan Pacific Championships and the Pan American and Olympic Games. This year is head coach for the U.S. Team going to Brisbane, Australia for the Goodwill Games. Honored as American Swim Coach of the Year in 1982 and 1989, Mr. Shoulberg has produced Olympians Dave Wharton, Dave Berkoff, Sean Killion, Dan Jorgenson, Trina Radke, Erika Hansen, Sue Heon and for the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia—Maddy Crippen. He has also coached over 200 All-American swimmers as well as numerous Senior and Junior National champions and finalists.

Cost—$60 each clinic—this includes T-shirt. Coaches admitted free. Make all checks payable to "GAAC."

All clinics will be held at Germantown Academy, Morris Road, Fort Washington, PA.

If you have any questions please call us at 215-542-9095.

Mr. Shoulberg also conducts private clinics for teams. Please contact him directly for further information.
